DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 6, 7, 10 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 6 teaches "vegetable oil derivative" without teaching the structure of the derivative, or how such is derivatized. Since compounds such as water, alcohols, acids, alkanes, etc. may be derived from a vegetable oil, the scope of the claim is not clear.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claims 7 recites the broad recitation 0-80, and the claim also recites 20-40 which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

Regarding claims 10 and 12, the term "preferably" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the term are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 2, 4-9 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kercheville (4280915).

Kercheville teaches a water base drilling fluid which comprises the reaction product of an aminoalcohol, such as diethanolamine, and a vegetable oil, which can be sunflower or linseed oil (column 2, line 35 - column 3, line 12, examples and claims).

5. Claims 1, 4, 5, 6 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Derwent Abstract of SU 1493622.

Derwent Abstract of SU '622 teaches a water based drilling fluid which comprise the reaction product of cottonseed oil and diethanolamine.

6. Claim 3 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
